"Randy Camp is a Pro-Life Democrat"
Claims in handouts and TV commercials

Dear Concerned Citizen:

I was married to Randy Camp for 20 years. He is not pro-life.

For the sake of both his and my relationship with our daughters and grandson, I was determined to remain silent during Randy's Senate race.

When he claimed to be a farmer even though I knew he wasn't, I said nothing. Even the judge in court documents labeled him "a successful politician and attorney", not a farmer.

When he claimed to "know what principles are important to Tennessee families" I said nothing even though he had been unfaithful to me for nearly 20 years, lied to me about it all and then even lied in court proceedings.

I am ashamed that I have watched him tell voters lie after lie after lie and said nothing. But when I saw him using our daughters in an effort to portray himself as pro-life, I knew I couldn't remain silent any longer.

Randy Camp is not pro-life. He may tell you that now in an effort to get your vote, but when he was confronted with an inconvenient pregnancy, he counseled abortion. I know. Fortunately, the woman did not listen.

There comes a time in everyone's life when truth is the most important thing no matter the consequences. Such is the case for me now.

Sincerely,

Lisa Camp
