

Tired of what's going on in Nashville?

Too many people are just getting by and the politicians in Nashville just don't seem to care. Prices for necessities like food and gas are rising faster than wages. Becky Ruppe will work to lower energy costs, create higher-paying jobs and help our families get ahead.

It's Our Future. It's Time For A Change.

Becky Ruppe will crack down on big oil companies that make record profits by gouging us at the pump.

Becky Ruppe will work to raise the minimum wage. All employees deserve to be treated fairly.

Becky Ruppe will work to create more economic development and higher-paying jobs with good benefits.

Becky Ruppe will fight to make health care and prescription drugs more affordable and expand home care for seniors.

Will Fight For Us!

Ken Yeager Looks Out For Himself, Not Us

Ken Yeager raised his own pay, increased taxes 11 times, and wasted our tax dollars.

Ken Yeager raised taxes 11 times as Roane County Executive and used the revenue to give himself a pay raise.

Ken Yeager supported a series of deep cuts to the sheriff's office, and crime in Roane County jumped 78 percent.

Ken Yeager spent thousands of taxpayer dollars on lavish gifts, meals and luxury hotel stays in Canada.

Ken Yeager rewarded his campaign contributors with thousands of dollars in government contracts.

Values We Share, Experience We Need

Becky Ruppe shares our conservative values.

She strongly supports gun-rights, the rights of the unborn and is firmly against gay marriage and the rise of illegal immigration.

A two-term member of the Morgan County School Board, Becky Ruppe became the first woman elected Morgan County Executive in 2004. She has worked for more jobs, improved emergency services and stronger schools. Becky and her husband, Darrell, live in Oakdale. She is a member of Piney Baptist Church.
